There is a great deal of work to be done in the field of the history of the Negro in the United States. The first step is to collect the facts. The second step is to interpret the facts. The third step is to write the history. The fourth step is to teach the history. The fifth step is to make the history a part of the life of the people.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This involves understanding the current situation and the desired outcome.

2. The second step is to analyze the problem. This involves identifying the causes of the problem and the potential solutions.

3. The third step is to develop a plan. This involves determining the steps that need to be taken to solve the problem.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring progress.

5. The fifth step is to evaluate the results. This involves assessing the effectiveness of the solution and making adjustments as needed.
